

Environmental Education Organizations of North Carolina

NCAEEC: North Carolina Association of Environmental Education Centers

- A non-profit that represents the interests and needs of environmental education centers
- EE centers are physical sites that provide EE for the public in some capacity.

OEE: North Carolina Office of Environmental Education

- Part of NC Department of Environmental Quality, the state's environmental agency
- Administers the NC EE Certification Program
- Website offers listings of EE programs and facilities in NC as well as peer-reviewed articles on EE research
- Website lists EE jobs, grants, and contests

EENC: Environmental Educators of North Carolina

- State affiliate of NAAEE
- Serves as the state's EE professional membership organization
- Hosts a statewide annual conference for environmental educators and regional meetings

NAAEE: North American Association for Environmental Educators

- National non-profit that hosts an annual conference and supports teacher training in EE across the world.
- Website offers peer-reviewed articles on EE research and the Guidelines for Excellence in Environmental Education

*National organization